

GUIDE TO SEED POTATO VARIETIES

First Earlies

Duke of York: A great favourite in Scotland, this old variety has a pronounced flavour.

Home Guard: A variety with a long pedigree and good flavour at early lifting.

Pentland Javelin: Produces numerous tubers of uniform shape.

Red Duke of York: A heritage variety producing deep red, tasty, large tubers.

Sharpes Express: An old favourite, this variety produces a distinctive mealy flavour.

Second Earlies

Maris Peer: An early bulking and mature variety with a high yield.

Wilja: A high yielding variety producing uniform tubers.

Early Main Crop

Maris Piper: A high yielding, popular and versatile variety.

Main Crop

Desiree: An established favourite, which produces a high yield of eye catching tubers.

Golden Wonder: Heritage flavour. Scotland's favourite premium potato.

King Edward: The traditional gardeners' quality variety which produces attractive tubers with a floury texture.

Majestic: An old favourite producing medium to large tubers of a floury texture.

Salad Potato

Nicola: A good salad and boiling potato with excellent flavour.

Pink Fir Apple: Unusual variety with a very distinctive flavour. Excellent in winter salads.